

Fountain Care and Maintenance

- Do not use any corrosive chemicals as this might corrode the outside surface.
- Clean with ordinary water and brush when necessary to remove dirt and grime.
- During winter or cold temperature weather, drain out all water and cover properly when not in use. If left uncovered/unprotected water in the crevices can freeze and cause outer layer to pit, crumble or crack.
- Unless properly treated, all water features experience calcium buildup.